

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA BARBARA
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

THE FOURTH STEVEN HUMPHREY
EXCELLENCE IN PHILOSOPHY CONFERENCE:

REASON & VALUE

FEBRUARY 16-18, 2008

SPEAKERS

COMMENTATORS

SATURDAY

Joseph Raz

(Columbia University; Oxford University)
"Reason, Reasons and Normativity"

Connie Rosati

(University of Arizona)
"The Story of a Life"

Peter Railton

(University of Michigan)
"Desire and Rationality"

Niko Kolodny

(University of California, Berkeley)
Commentary

Joshua Gert

(Florida State University)
Commentary

Nadeem Hussain

(Stanford University)
Commentary

SUNDAY

Ralph Wedgwood

(Oxford University)
"A Platonic Theory of Reasons for Action"

David Velleman

(New York University)
"Love and Nonexistence"

Thomas Pink

(King's College London)
"Moral Rationality and Moral Responsibility"

Ulrike Heuer

(University of Leeds)
Commentary

Mark Schroeder

(University of Southern California)
Commentary

Douglas Lavin

(Harvard University)
Commentary

MONDAY

John Broome

(Oxford University)
"Does Rationality Consist in Responding Correctly to Reasons?"

R. Jay Wallace

(University of California, Berkeley)
"Reasons, Values, and Agent-Relativity"

Pamela Hieronymi

(University of California, Los Angeles)
Commentary

Pekka Väyrynen

(University of California, Davis)
Commentary

Conference REGISTRATION is free but required for attendance. To register, email Kevin Foote at kfoote@philosophy.ucsb.edu
For more conference information, please go to www.philosophy.ucsb.edu/conferences