

JOSEPH LEE

Phone (323) 252-3734

Email: josephlee@uemail.ucsb.edu

Office: SH 5432 V

Research Interests: My philosophical interests are mainly in two areas, Ancient philosophy and ethics. I would like to use ancient insights in ethics with contemporary rigor, eventually forming a virtue-based theory that can be applied to modern moral dilemmas.

Other interests: Learning to play and sing Bossa Nova music, other Jazz standards, and occasionally, when the opportunity arises, to play music live.

EDUCATION

Present	Pursuing Ph.d in Philosophy, UC Santa Barbara
1999	Master of Arts, Biola University
1999	Master of Divinity, Biola University
1995	Bachelor of Arts, University of California, San Diego

EMPLOYMENT

Winter 2005-Present	Teaching Assistant University of California, Santa Barbara
Fall 2001-Sp 2004	Adjunct Philosophy Professor Mt. San Antonio College, Walnut, CA
Spring 2001-Sp 2004	Adjunct Tutor Torrey Honors Institute, Biola University, La Mirada, CA A multidisciplinary program that explores great books from the Ancient Greeks to the 20th century through the Socratic method
Fall 2000-Sum 2005	Adjunct Professor School of Professional Studies, Biola University Taught students of diverse ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds in California: Vista, Inglewood, Newbury Park, and La Mirada.
Fall 2002-Sp 2004	Adjunct Philosophy Professor Los Angeles Trade Tech College, Los Angeles, CA
Fall 2000	Adjunct Professor Biola University

AWARDS

Spring 2002	Educator of Distinction Awarded by the Associated Students of Mt. San Antonio
-------------	--

College

AFFILIATIONS

KAPPA TAU EPSILON HONORS SOCIETY